

On December 1, 2001, at the Warfield Theatre, the Rex Foundation launched its renewal with The Healing Power of Music. That night the full house of kindred spirits celebrated the fun of being together, enjoying great music and supporting the greater good.

On December 1, 2006, at the Warfield Theatre, the Rex Foundation once again celebrates in a filled hall with friends from far and wide. Everyone involved in presenting this event – the musicians and their production team, ticket purchasers, venue staff, in-kind and silent auction contributors, volunteers, event coordination team – has contributed their resources, ingenuity, community spirit and kindness to create this special occasion and support the on-going success of the Rex Foundation.

Thank you for being part of this celebration. Enjoy the evening. Savor all the good that comes from our collective efforts - those Vibes for Peace.
